We will help your ministry optimize its effectiveness with our 3 R strategy,
ReImagine, RePurpose, ReVitalize.

STRENGTHENING THE BLACK CHURCH

THE BLACK CHURCH MATTERS

www.SBC21.org | @SBC21

1 HONORING CONGREGATIONAL STORY AND STRENGTHS

Community building occurs through relationships and honoring your individual and collective strengths, Some people become involved in Organizations because they believe in the cause.

Some people become involved in a community group or organization, just because they have a relationship with another person who is already involved.

- What's your Congregational story and DNA?
- Where can your congregation uniquely create Beloved Community?
- Who are your partners and allies?

2 EMBRACING INDIVIDUAL AND COLLECTIVE STRENGTHS

People who have the opportunity to use their strengths are more likely to be engaged in ministry because they have the chance to do what they do best.

Learn how to develop your team's greatest talents into strengths and to maximize your ministry potential.

3 UNDERSTANDING YOUR COMMUNITY

Communities are as varied as the members. Often people belong to two or more communities. Family, education business, work, sport, religion, culture all involve communities. Communities are the building blocks that allows us to make sense of the world in which we live, participate and share experiences. They provide a sense of identity and purpose, a sense of being a part of and belonging.

- Equitable access to quality public education
- Jobs + Poverty eradication
- Affordable and safe housing
- Healthcare access and choice
- Affordable and safe childcare
- Restorative justice including voting rights
- Safe relationships free from abuse
- Voting rights

4 DEFINING YOUR BELOVED COMMUNITY: MINISTRY ACTION PLANNING

Dr. King's Beloved Community is a vision, in which all people can share in the wealth of the earth. Poverty, hunger and homelessness will not be tolerated.

Racism and all form of discrimination, bigotry and prejudice will be by an all-inclusive spirit of sisterhood and brotherhood. Love and trust will triumph over fear and hatred.

5 PRACTICING SPIRITUAL DISCIPLINES

- Breakthrough Prayer
- Lifestyle of Worship (praise, study, meditation, etc.)
- Sacraments (Baptism, Holy Communion)
- Small Groups
- Congregational Care

Breakthrough Prayer: It is not just a prayer class, prayer committee, prayer meeting, or sermon series. It's when God 's people join together in an intentional prayer movement across all ages to simply and repeatedly pray--either silently or aloud--asking God to break through in new and miraculous ways so that we can boldly move forward and fulfil God's intention for why we exist as Christ's body, right now and beyond.
