Primary Areas of Service Envisioned:

SBC21 Office would welcome your commitment to be a placement site for student interns in this program. If approved, your church's responsibilities would include the following:

- Meeting with (intern) _____, Dean of Academy of Interns and SBC21 National Director, to review this program's purpose and your needs for a potential student intern.
- Attending an Academy of Interns Orientation
- Ability to supervise an intern in areas that provides exposure to and experience with various forms of service in an urban context (e.g. youth work, children's ministry, after-school programs, serving the poor, community development, urban non-profit work, etc.)
- Willingness to sign a "Learning Covenant" with SBC21 and with the intern placed with you, clarifying in writing your expectations for the intern, as well as your willingness to give written evaluations of the intern's involvement.
- Sufficient work for the intern that will allow them to complete full-time hours of service over a 2 year period, including any study time or research/writing time involved.

If you are able and willing to meet these expectations and would like to serve as an approved placement site for interns please sign and email this form as an attachment to: Dr. Fred Allen, National Director SBC21 – Academy of Interns; fallen@gbod.org
